

Portfolio for Economics: Research Program

Portfolio item	Required documents	Maximum number of points
CV	Should include: your education, work experience, publications, conferences, workshops, summer schools, grants, academic and other achievements, languages and computer skills.	20
Letter of motivation	Up to two pages of text explaining your reasons for application to this program and future professional plans.	20
Two letters of recommendation	Recommendation letters from your teachers, academic advisors or employers (at least one letter should be from the university where you studied).	20
Copy of the diploma and transcript	Undergraduate/graduate diploma (if you already have one) and current transcript with grades.	10
Additional documents/criteria
Confirmation of college-level mathematics courses taken by the applicant	Based on your transcript with course grades we will evaluate your knowledge of mathematics (such courses as calculus, linear algebra, differential equations, probability theory and statistics, mathematics for economists)	10
Scientific publications, presentations at the seminars and conferences and other academic achievements	List of your publications, conference presentations, additional diplomas and certificates for academic achievements	10
International English-language certificates	One of those: IELTS, at least 6 TOEFL IBT (Internet Based), at least 80 TOEFL PBT (Paper Based), at least 500 CPE (Certificate of Proficiency in English), at least C CAE (Certificate of Advanced English) BEC Higher (Business English Certificate) Alternatively: official confirmation that your previous undergraduate/graduate studies were in English	10
Interview	May be conducted via Skype if the selection committee deems it necessary.	0
Total		100