

Personal information of the winner/prize-winner of the Olympiad is required for confirming the right to free education in Russia.

IMPORTANT: This info must be submitted correctly before March 5. You won't get a chance to submit your application after this date.

From March 6 to March 20, the uploaded documents will be checked.

On March 20, the prize-winners who are eligible for free education will be appointed. They are chosen based on their rating, the completeness of the downloaded package of documents, and the availability of vacant places due to winners not submitting the necessary documents.

Please read all the instructions carefully, because it is very important that all submitted documents meet the necessary requirements.

1. Find the "Personal information package of the winner/prize-winner of the Olympiad" in your profile on our website.
2. If you are a winner or prize-winner in several Subject Areas at once, choose the one preferred Subject Area in which will you exercise your right to free education.
3. Choose the language you want to conduct your master's program studies in.
4. Select your preferred master's program track.
5. Select one of the "Global Universities" Association universities that accepts students in this track. If you want to study at any other Russian university, you need to find out about the availability of appropriate programs yourself.
6. Fill out the application form according to your choice.
7. Upload the required documents.
8. Wait for the confirmation letter and be prepared to correct any mistakes we might find in your docs.
